

Erratum for National Certificate for Door Supervisors (Scotland) – Edition 1
October 2006

Assessment is not affected by any of the following changes.

Unit	Page	Section	Details of change (added text is in italics):
1	19	5.1.4	The prosecution of crime in Scotland is undertaken by the Crown Office and Procurator Fiscal Service (COPFS)
1	48	1.3	Delete existing text and replace with the following: Certain gambling activities are permitted without authorisation on premises licensed for the sale of alcohol for consumption on the premises (except restaurants which have a condition that alcohol is served only with food). These activities include equal chance games (with stakes limited to £5 per person with the exception of dominoes and cribbage for which there is no limit to the stake), small incidental raffles or customer lotteries and bingo. Poker and poker-style games are also permitted, with limits set at £100 for total money staked in a day. In addition, no player may win more than £100 on any one game. All operators of alcohol licensed premises are expected to comply with the Codes of Practice on gambling and gaming machines published by the Gambling Commission and it is strongly recommended that premises licence holders and operators obtain expert specialist advice before allowing gaming to take place on the premises that was not covered by previous legislation. Door stewards need to check with the premises licence holder or the manager on duty as to what gambling activities are permitted on the premises.
1	80	16.4	Delete final bullet which reads: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - malicious mischief (the intentional or reckless damage of property without the owner's consent). Eg Kicking down a door.